

THE SIMPSON COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION

BULLETIN-BOARD

VOL. 27, NO. 7

JANUARY 22, 2013

The Simpson County Board of Education met in regular session on Tuesday, January 22, 2013, with all members present. The following business was transacted.

1. Mr. Flynn made welcome announcements including: A ribbon cutting was held for LOPC's new "Essential Living Lab" which was a project of the 2012 Leadership F-S class. Principals Crystal Bayles and Tim Schlosser each presented programs at the Barren River Area P-16 Council meeting about community partnerships. We had four winners at the FSMS academic team's regional competition: Bailey Buckner -2nd place in Language Arts, Tyler Eaton - 3rd place in Math, Taegan Strain - 6th place in Arts & Humanities and Christina Tomas - 6th place in Social Studies. The LES academic team will hold a quick recall match with adult community members at 5:30 p.m. this Thursday night at the Gallery on the Square. FSHS basketball homecoming will be this Friday night. The FSHS cheerleaders will hold a chili supper from 5-7 p.m. in the cafeteria. There will be a KHEAA financial aid specialist at the high school on January 28th from 9am-5pm who can meet families and help them through the FAFSA process. Contact Kendrick Adams for an appointment. In observation of board recognition month, Supt. Flynn presented board members with certificates from KSBA, and presented newly elected board members a framed oath of office document.
2. Chairperson David Webster called the meeting to order and the agenda was approved.
3. April McNaughton, LES Principal introduced the 5th grade chorus students who sang two songs in recognition of Dr. Martin Luther King.
4. Kasey Kenyon, SSAC representative, discussed topics important to FSHS students including reading prep for ACT during Academic Time, club funding, more interesting morning announcements, hallway traffic, parking lot traffic flow, and cafeteria ideas. The SSAC have been invited back to the KSBA annual conference this year which will be held next month in Louisville. Ms. Kenyon also discussed a special report on WBKO that she (along with students from Bowling Green, Warren County and Allen County schools) participated in. The report is on how social media influences teens. The report will air on WBKO February 18th at 6pm.
